ORDER:

WHEREAS the Collector & District Magistrate, West Godavari District, has made an order of detention, vide reference first read above under section 3 (2) r/w. 3(1) of the Andhra Pradesh Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Dacoits, Drug Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders and Land Grabbers Act, 1986 (Act No.1 of 1986), against Sri Vadapalli Venkateswara Rao, S/o. Nageswara Rao, aged 23 years, R/o. Parimpudi Ankampalem Village, Jeelugumilli Mandal, West Godavari District, who had been indulged in 'boot legging' activities for clandestine procurement, transportation, possession and sale of I.D.liquor in contravention of A.P. Prohibition (Amendment) Act,1997, with a view to prevent him from further indulging in a manner prejudicial to the maintenance of public order;

2. AND WHEREAS the Government have accorded approval of the said detention order under sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Act, vide Government Orders second read above;

3. AND WHEREAS the Advisory Board on Preventive Detentions, constituted under section 9 of the said Act, comprising of Justice Sri T.L.N. Reddy (Retired), Chairman and two other Members, reviewed the case on 26-11-2012 and after having heard the detenu, his wife Smt. Vadapalli Durga and Sister-in-law Smt.G.Bhadramma, and the Investigating Officers and also upon perusing the grounds of detention and the connected records, has opined that "there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu, Sri Vadapalli Venkateswara Rao, S/o. Nageswara Rao, aged 23 years, R/o. Parimpudi Ankampalem Village, Jeelugumilli Mandal, W.G. District."

4. WHEREAS, the Government after careful examination of the entire record, observed that the detenu,Sri Vadapalli Venkateswara Rao, had indulged in as many as in (Three) cases for indulging in boot-legging activities of clandestine procurement, transportation, possession and sale of I.D. liquor. He is a habitual offender. In all of the (3) Offences, he was caught red handed at the scene of offence and the said cases were registered under section 7-A r/w. sec.8(e) of A.P. Prohibition (Amendment) Act,1997 by the Prohibition & Excise Officials. The Government Chemical Examiner, who had examined the samples of contraband seized, opined that seized liquor is illicitly distilled liquor, unfit for human consumption and injurious to health. The detaining authority, having taken into consideration and in exercise of reasonable anticipation, effect of the illegal boot-legging activities of the detenu on the public health at large, and prejudicial to maintenance of public order, and having felt that the ordinary law under which he is charged, is not sufficient to deal with his alleged activities, unless he is detained under the detention laws, has passed the order of detention. The Advisory Board, after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for the detention of the detenu. The object of the Act, is to prevent recurrence of the offences, which affects the public health and order. In view of the repeated involvement of the individual in a series of cases and procurement, transportation, possession and sale of I.D. liquor, which is illicitly distilled and injurious to health, the detenu deserves detention for the maximum period as provided under sec. 13 of the Act.

(PTO)

5. NOW, THEREFORE, after due consideration of the report of the Advisory Board and the material available on record, Government, in exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (1) of section 12 read with section 13 of the said Act, hereby confirm the order of detention made by the Collector & District Magistrate, West Godavari District, in the ref. 1st read above, as approved in the G.O. 2nd read above and direct that the detention of Sri Vadapalli Venkateswara Rao, S/o. Nageswara Rao, aged 23 years, R/o. Parimpudi Ankampalem Village, Jeelugumilli Mandal, West Godavari District, be continued for a period of 12 (Twelve) months from the date of his detention, i.e. 17-10-2012.
